practice almsgiving, prayer and fasting. This is the antidote to the hardness of my heart. Piety, study and action is how we each grow in the life of our God. And our fourth day is to reflect the Resurrection of Jesus, where He begins His 4th day - to continuously renew ones heart is to bring the righteousness, peace and joy of our God's kingdom to all those we encounter in our faith journey.

Happy resurrection day - happy 4th day.

Committee Meeting

Ultreya April 13th at Sacred Heart Church, Farmer City

Mass starts at 8:30 with a breakfast potluck to follow. There will be a meditation on anger and forgiveness given by Mary Schaal.

Let's gather and live our faith in community!

EACC have purchased 40 new beds for use during Cursillo weekends. The beds will be easier to set up, take-down, and store. The cost of each bed was $130. If you wish to donate money to the ADOPT-A-BED fund, please make checks payable to EACC and mail to: Eastern Area Cursillo Community, P.O. Box 7043, Champaign, IL 61826-7043 (please include "adopt a bed" on the memo line. Thank you for your support!
